

The Question:

Who Will Take Care of A Child with Special Needs When The Parents Are No Longer Able?

The Answer:

If You Have A Child Or Grandchild With Special Needs, You Must Make Special Provisions In Your Estate Plan For That Special Child

We are proud to present a unique workshop:

For The Love of My Special Child: Estate Planning For Parents of Children with Special Needs

Learn How You Can:

- Identify the dangers facing your child and your estate plan, and how to deal with them
- Ensure that there will be sufficient resources to care for your child for his or her entire life
- Provide a true legacy for your other children
- Avoid estate and income taxes on your legacy
- Ensure your child's continued eligibility
- Protect all of your loved ones' inheritance
 - From lawsuit creditors
 - From predators who prey on the disabled
 - From denial of medical assistance
- You will learn:
 - Why the new laws (including the ABLÉ act) make good planning more important than ever!
 - How to maintain control of your legacy;
 - How to leave your special child and other heirs what you want, when you want, and the way you want – yes, there are options!
- Learn how you can effectively convey loving instructions about your hopes, dreams, and aspirations for those you love.
